ANN SIDOROWICH

On October 15, 1952 the writer with SA JOHN HEGARTY was surveilling the residence of the subjects at 1225 East 124th Street, Cleveland, Ohio. At approximately 11:40 A.M. ANN SIDOROWICH left her residence on foot. The writer followed her on foot. She walked to Igomar Street and East 123rd Street where she took a trolley to Public Square, Cleveland, Ohio. At the Public Square she disembarked and proceeded to the Arcade Building where she had lunch at the Cloverleaf Restaurant. After leaving the restaurant the subject walked to the Cleveland Public Auditorium where a food show was in progress.

During the course of walking to the auditorium, the subject met an acquaintance momentarily. They merely expressed greetings and passed on. This person was a female in her early 40s, about 5' 5½" tall, weighing approximately 140 to 150 pounds. She was of stocky build and wore glasses.

The subject attended the food show at the Cleveland Auditorium most of the afternoon. She contacted no one during the afternoon and at approximately 4 P.M. she left the show and proceeded to Euclid Avenue where she took a bus home. In the vicinity of her home she went shopping and upon completion of her shopping she returned to her residence.

For the date of October 15, 1952 other pertinent information has been dictated in a log by SA JOHN HEGARTY.

On October 16, 1952 the writer with SA JAMES E. GILLEY took up a surveillance at the residence of the subjects at approximately 2 P.M. At 3:40 P.M. ANN SIDOROWICH was noted by the writer and SA GILLEY to return to her apartment carrying what appeared to be groceries.

At approximately 5 P.M. the writer and SA GILLEY broke up the surveillance at the subjects' residence and proceeded to the place of employment of MICHAEL SIDOROWICH, the Gas Machinery Company at 16100 Waterloo Avenue.

The subject departed from work at approximately 6:04 P.M. in the company of another individual. The subject proceeded in his automobile down Waterloo Avenue to 140th Street, cut across to Lake Shore Boulevard and from there proceeded down to Euclid and 105th Street where he left his companion. At this point SA GILLEY left the Bureau automobile in an effort to identify the subject's companion.

SA GILLEY advised that the individual to whom the subject gave a lift entered the Hotel Clair Doan at 10402 St. Clair Avenue. SA GILLEY advised that this individual proceeded to the third floor but that he could not identify the room into which this individual left. It is noted that although this is listed as a hotel in the title, it is more or less a cheap rooming house. SA GILLEY advised this individual is described as being male, about 5' 10" or 5' 11", age 35 to 38 years with straight blonde hair and thin on top. He had blue eyes, medium complexion and weighed from 160 to 165 pounds. He was dressed in a light colored jacket. SA GILLEY stated that he contacted Mrs. STELLA VALES, landlady of the above address, and that she knew of no one fitting the description of the subject staying in that rooming house although she stated that she did not know all the individuals who were living there.

The writer, after discharging SA GILLEY, continued to follow the subject who proceeded to a parking lot near Pierce Hall, Western Reserve University, at Euclid and Wade Park. The writer was unable to ascertain to what building the subject went but his car was parked in this parking lot from approximately 6:45 until 7:15. After returning to his car the subject proceeded directly home.

The writer again took up the surveillance at the subjects' residence where he was joined by SA GILLEY at
